

2011 Winter Benefit Pow Wow

Sponsored by the Mascoutin Society

Saturday, February 5th, 2011

Will County Fair Atrium - 710 S. West Street - Peotone, IL 60468

Public Welcome

Traditional Pow Wow - Native American Dancing and Singing - Native Crafts Vendors

Doors open at 12:00 Noon

Intertribal Dancing: 1:00 - 5:00

Meal Break: 5:00 - 7:00

Intertribal Dancing: 7:00 - 9:00

Admission:

Seniors 65+ -	$3.00
Adults -	$5.00
17 & below -	$3.00
Drums & Singers -	Free
Dressed Participants -	Free

Bob Brewer
Published November 1969
American Indian Crafts & Culture

Pow Wow Chair:

Ro Chabot - 708-798-9550

ro@mascoutin.com

Trader/Vendor Info:

Don Gatske - 630-859-2554

traders@mascoutin.com

Drums by Invitation Only

Head Male Dancer:

G. Allen Daily
Wauwatosa, WI

Head Female Dancer:

Jessica Fechner
Batavia, IL

Head Veteran:

Mike Pamonicutt
AIC-Chicago

Master of Ceremonies:

Leonard Malatare
AIC-Chicago

Arena Director:

Ed Bechtel
Elkhart, IN

- ❖ Native American Crafts
- ❖ Silent Auction
- ❖ Raffles drawn during each session
- ❖ Special Quilt Raffle - Pictures are on the website - Contact 708-798-9550 for tickets prior to Pow Wow
- ❖ Chances to win prizes or money
- ❖ Saturday evening meal for participants
- ❖ Donations Accepted

No smoking in building - No Outside Raffles - No Pets - Soft-soled shoes in Atrium Building

The Will County Fair Atrium is located 1 mile East of I-57.

Take the Peotone exit from I-57, travel East until you reach the railroad tracks and turn North.

Motels: Howard Johnson and Country Inn & Suites located just 6 miles away in Manteno, IL off I-57.

Holiday Inn, Country Inn & Suites and Americas Best Value Inn located at US-30 & I-57.

The Mascoutin Society of Chicagoland is a nonprofit organization with the purpose of promoting Native Cultures. The Winter Benefit Pow Wow is the Mascoutin Society's primary fund raiser and money collected is used for many worthwhile causes. The Mascoutin Society aids Native American students with scholarships and families with its family aid program. The Society also contributes to local and national Native American organizations. Each summer the Society sponsors the O-Sa-Wan Pow Wow in the Chicagoland area.

For additional information visit:

www.Mascoutin.com

The Mascoutin Society of Chicagoland is not responsible for accidents, injury, theft, or loss of property. Drugs, alcohol and weapons are strictly forbidden. Security on premises.